From Tuesday August 27. to Saturday August 31. 1745.

Naples, Auguſt 10, N. S.

ON the 26th paſt ſailed from this Port, for the Coaſt of Genoa, ſeveral Tranſport Veſſels, Part whereof were laden with Flour, and Part with Oats, which M. Barreta, the Agent Victualler, ſends to the Spaniſh and Neapolitan Troops, who, beſides the uſual Freight, has been obliged to give Security for the Veſſels, in caſe they ſhould be taken by the Britiſh Ships of War. On the 29th ſailed alſo from Naples, for Port Ercole and the Preſidii, two of the King's Gallies, conducting there 36000 Zekeens in Specie, for the Payment of the King's Troops in the State of Genoa. They have likewiſe Ammunition and Proviſions on board. On the 3d, by Order of the Court, an Embargo was laid in this Port on ten large Tranſports, but for what Service it has not been declared. The ſix large Tranſport Veſſels which lately were hired in this Port for the King's Service, are deſigned to tranſport 3000 Men of regular Troops, which are to be compoſed of two Battalions of Swiſs, by all the Companies of Grenadiers, and a Piquet of each old Regiment; but for what Deſign they are intended it is not publickly known. On the 9th, eight Tranſports ſailed from Naples, whereof four to Gaeta, to embark a Battalion of Virtz, and four to Trapani, to embark a Battalion of Jauch, both Swiſs. The King has appointed a Committee, at the Head of which is the Duke of Caſtropignano, Captain General of the King's Forces, in order to form the Militia in Sicily into Regiments, and on the ſame Footing as are thoſe in the Kingdom of Naples.

Rome, Aug. 14, N. S. On the 25th, a conſiderable Number of Horſes from Naples arrived here, in their Way to France, through Lombardy, for the Uſe of the French King. Laſt Week ſailed from Civita Vecchia four Neapolitan Veſſels, laden with 24 Battering Cannon, Bombs, and Powder, for the Spaniſh and Neapolitan Troops in the State of Genoa. They ſteered their Courſe to the Iſland of Corſica, to eſcape the Engliſh Ships of War. On the 5th the Pretender received a Courier from Avignon, with Diſpatches from his eldeſt Son, with Notice of his Departure from France, without declaring for what Part. The King of Naples having eſtabliſhed a Fabrick of China made of a very fine Earth in the neighbouring Mountains of that Capital, has preſented to the Pope, by Means of Cardinal Acquaviva, with a Letter of his own Hand-writing, Setts for Tea, Coffee, and Chocolate, ſet in Gold, which were received by the Pope with great Satisfaction. On the 9th, the French Ambaſſador had a private Audience of the Pope, to which he was introduced by Cardinal Gonzaga, the Secretary of State. In the Night, M. Boldrioli, Firſt Valet de Chambre of the Pope, ſet out privately for Bologna, which has cauſed the Report of the Pope's Deſign of a Journey to that City to be renewed. On the 10th M. Sampario, the Portugueſe Miniſter at this Court, ſent back to Vienna the Courier, which he ſome few Days ago had received from his Portugueſe Majeſty's Miniſter at that Court, concerning the Mediation, accepted by the King their Maſter, to compoſe the Differences between the Queen of Hungary and the Pope.

Florence, Auguſt 17, N. S. A third Regiment of Militia, Foot, has lately been raiſed and compleated in the State of Siena, for the Great Duke's Service, but the Colonel and Lieutenant Colonel have not as yet been nominated. On the 5th Inſtant, the four Diviſions of Spaniſh and Neapolitan Troops, conſiſting of between four and five thouſand Men, commanded by M. de Pignaron, which marched from Viterbo through Tuſcany, joined at Camaiore, in the State of Lucca, and proceeded on their March by Pietra Santa to Maſſa, where they arrived arrived in the Evening of the ſame Day the 5th, and there halted, on Notice that a large Detachment of Auſtrians from Parma and Mantua were poſted at Fornuovo, to watch their Motions, and oppoſe any Diverſions they may attempt in the Lunigiana and Lombardy. On the 30th paſt an Exchange was made of the reſpective Priſoners of the Auſtrian, Spaniſh and Neapolitan Troops in Piedmont. The Combined Army of Spaniſh, Neapolitan, French and Genoeſe Troops, continue in their reſpective Encampments near Tortona, as do the Auſtrian and Sardinian in theirs, not far diſtant from the Enemy. Many rich Prizes, with Effects and Goods from Lisbon, &c. belonging to the Genoeſe Subjects, have lately been ſent to the Port of Leghorn by the Engliſh Men of War of the Diviſion of Commodore Cooper. By the laſt Letters from Lombardy we are informed, that the Duke of Modena, with a large Detachment of Spaniſh, French, Neapolitan and Genoeſe Troops, will endeavour to penetrate, by the Garfagnana, into the State of Modena, whilſt the main Body of thoſe Troops are carrying on the Siege of Tortona. The Body of Spaniſh and Neapolitan Troops from Maſſa, under the Command of M. de Pignardon, proceeded on their March by the Specia, along the Sea Coaſt, to join M. de Gages's Army. The Auſtrian and Sardinian Armies continue in their uſual Poſition; and the Detachment of Auſtrian Troops from Mantua and Parma, that were advanced to Fornuovo, to watch the Motions of the Enemy, has been countermanded to their reſpective Poſts. On the 11th ſailed from the Port of Leghorn, the Squadron of the King of Sardinia's Gallies on a Cruize.

Leghorn, Aug. 13. By the laſt Advices from Genoa, the Combined Armies of France and Spain had inveſted Tortona, and expected to open their Trenches by the 15th Inſtant with 100 Pieces of Cannon and 40 Mortars. It is reported that three Engineers have made their Eſcape out of the Garriſon, and gone over to the Spaniards.

Yſtadt, Auguſt 11, O. S. The Day before Yeſterday, in the Morning, Prince William of Heſſe, landed here, after a tedious Paſſage of ſeven Days from Roſtock. His Swediſh Majeſty, attended by all his Court, went and met his Highneſs at the Bridge. To-morrow his Majeſty goes with the Prince to Malmoe, and from thence to Helſingbourg and the Province of Halland, where they will ſpend ſome Days in taking the Pleaſure of Hunting. We hear from Stralſund, that Dagenaer, finding himſelf forſaken by his Men, had been there in order to inliſt more, and truſting to his Credit there, as well as at Stockholm, did not ſcruple telling who he was; whereupon he was ſecured.

Journal of the Saxon Auxiliary Army in Bohemia, from the 15th to the 22d of Auguſt, N. S. dated from the Head Quarters at Johannisberg.

Aug. 15. Amongſt ſeveral Deſerters who came over to us this Day, there were ſome belonging to a Troop which had eſcorted a Huntſman to Braunau with Diſpatches from the King of Pruſſia: They gave an Account, that there was a Corps of 18000 Men at Braunau, collected from all the Regiments, as well Horſe as Foot; that the King in Perſon was with the Army at Chlom, but that there was a Report that he would return into Sileſia with the whole Remainder of the Troops; that there were two Regiments in Garriſon at Glatz, one of which was reduced to 600 Men by Deſertion, and the other to 400, having loſt for a Month together from 15 to 20 Men every Day by the corrupted Water in the Fortreſs; that the Foot which were lodged in the Town and Suburbs of Glatz, were not indeed ſubject to this Inconvenience, but that they had loſt a great many Men by the Opportunities which they had to deſert.

The ſame Day we had Advice from the Frontiers, that the Pruſſian Corps, which was encamped at Zwol, was to march by Nachod into Sileſia. It is commanded by General du Moulin. That under General Lehwald, conſiſting of five Regiments of Horſe, two Regiments of Fuſileers, and one Battalion of Grenadiers, which was poſted at Zwol, from whence it marched the 13th Inſtant to Skaliz, and from thence to Neuſtadt, returned to the old Camp, and the Equipages which had been ſent into the Suburbs of Jaromirz, were ſent back again to Zwol.

General Nadaſti ſent Advice to Prince Charles, that 14 Pruſſian Squadrons were returned by Jaromirz to Semoniz, and that the ſeven other Squadrons, with 2000 Foot, were marched beyond Nachod to Borſchiz, where they were ſince encamped.

Three hundred Carriages, and 500 Oxen, belonging to the Pruſſians, which had paſſed by Skaliz and Nachod, were ſent from thence upon the 16th to Poliz, eſcorted by three Regiments of Horſe and one of Foot, with Cannon. A fourth Regiment of Horſe took the ſame Road the ſame Day: All this is confirmed by ſeveral Accounts. We had Advice alſo, that there was a conſiderable Body of Foot at Nachod, and one Battalion of Grenadiers in the Caſtle, and that the Pruſſians there talked as if their Grand Army would decamp in a few Days.

A Detachment of Auſtrian Troops, which had been ſent out on the other Side of the Aupa, in order to allarm a ſmall Pruſſian Camp there, fell upon a Piquet of their Grenadiers who guarded the Bridge, drove them to another Poſt, put them to Flight, and brought off a Quantity of Arms, Grenadiers Caps, and Knap-ſacks, without without any Loſs to themſelves. One Corporal only was wounded in the Head.

By our freſheſt Advices from Upper Sileſia we had an Account, that a conſiderable Train of Artillery, warlike Stores, with every Thing neceſſary for carrying on a Siege, was arrived at Oppeln from Breſlau, in 70 Boats, and that the whole was to remain there till the Troops ſaid to be expected from Bohemia were alſo arrived at Oppeln.

We had alſo Advice from the ſame Country, that eight Pruſſian Regiments had paſſed by Freyberg near Schweidnitz, and from thence to Buntzlau.

The Pruſſian Army encamped at Chlom, this Morning made a general Forage of all their Horſe, ſupported by ſeveral Battalions, with all their Artillery, to the Villages of Placziz and Librzan, which were entirely pillaged, as well as the others thereabouts.

Four Companies of Haller's Hungarian Regiment of Huſſars arrived at the Auſtrian Army here: They will be followed by ſix other Companies of 100 Men each.

Upon the 17th the Duke of Weiſſenfels returned to the Army in good Health: Upon his Arrival he was viſited by Prince Charles. And,

Upon the 18th, that Prince, with Prince Lobkowitz, and the Duke d'Aremberg, came to the Duke's Head Quarters, in order to concert together the Meaſures neceſſary to be taken in the preſent Situation of Affairs.

The Pruſſians foraged this Day on the Side of Przim and Nechaniz. We had Advice that they had thrown up three Redoubts at different Diſtances before their Camp, which were guarded by ſome Foot.

Upon the 19th we had Advice, that the Corps under General Lehwald, having again quitted their Camp near Zwol, were marching towards Skaliz and Nachod.

Upon the 20th, in the Morning, we had Advice, that a Corps of Pruſſians, detached from the grand Army, conſiſting of two Regiments of Foot, two of Horſe of five Squadrons each, was entred into the Camp at Zwol.

Upon the 21ſt, the Pruſſians foraged upon our Left Wing, from beyond Librzan towards Dobrzeniz and Woſſiz, and a Thouſand of their Horſe advanced to a Poſt near the Bridge of Wiſſoka, guarded by 50 Ulans and 50 Croats, whom they attacked. In this Rencounter the Pruſſians loſt an Officer and ſome Horſe; we loſt eight Ulans and two Croats.

A Battalion of Ogilvy's Regiment from Prague arrived at the Auſtrian Army.

Prince Charles, Prince Lobkowitz, and the Duke d'Aremberg, came to the Duke's Head Quarters, where a Council of War was held.

Upon the 22d the two Chiefs again aſſembled the Marſhals and General Officers of the combined Army at Johannisberg. After the Conferences were over, the neceſſary Orders were given for the March of the Armies the next Day.

Dreſden, Aug. 27, N. S. The Allied Army paſſed the Adler upon the 23d Inſtant, and the Night following the Pruſſians burnt their Camp at Chlom, and drew to the Elbe, having their Right at Schmirſchitz, and their Left at Samonitz. It is preſumed they have paſſed that River, and are poſted behind the Mettau, and that they will return to Sileſia. The Duke of Weiſſenfels is expected here to Night. Three Detachments from the combined Army are appointed to defend this Country; the firſt of 6000 Saxons, which will be on the Frontiers the 9th of this Month, the ſecond is to be of 4000 of the ſame Troops, and the third of 10,000, compoſed of Auſtrians and Saxons. It is ſaid that the Pruſſians near Halle have withdrawn the Magazine they had at Diesko to Wieſche, but that more Troops have paſſed from Treuenpritzen over the Saxon Territories, to join thoſe near Halle.

Dreſden, Aug. 28, N. S. The Duke of Weiſſenfels arrived here laſt Night. The Chevalier de Saxe will come with either the firſt or ſecond Detachment appointed for the Defence of this Country, and M. Renard, lately promoted with M. Berkholtz to the Bank of General of Foot, will command the Saxons that are left with the Combined Army. It is given out here, that his Pruſſian Majeſty has commenced Hoſtilities by ſeizing the Saxon Boat at Schidlow, on the Oder, between Croſſen and Furſtenberg, and by taking two or three Houlans belonging to that Port Priſoners, from whence they were uſually employed to carry Letters to Meſeritz in Poland. The Pruſſian Army near Halle is now encamped at Corbetha near the Saal, the whole Lordſhip of which belongs to the King of Poland. A Courier is to be diſpatched to Night to Petersburg, to claim the Succour of that Court.

Dreſden, Aug. 29. On the 25th Inſtant the King of Pruſſia paſſed the Elbe with his whole Army, and poſted it on the Mettau; whereupon Prince Charles drew up the combined Army between Librſitz and Tſchibus, having firſt ſo fortified this new Camp, that it is thought his Pruſſian Majeſty will not venture to attack him, and that the Pruſſians muſt ſoon retreat farther to be nearer their Subſiſtance, which they will now be forced to fetch from their Magazines in Sileſia; the Country in the Part of Bohemia behind them being totally conſumed; whereas on the right Side the Elbe they ſtill found Forage. Here are Informations, that more Pruſſian Troops are marching by Schweidnitz, which gives Room to apprehend, that his Pruſſian Pruſſian Majeſty intends to augment his Army near Halle.

Dreſden, September 1, N. S. The late Motions of the Armies in Bohemia, have not hitherto been attended with any important Event. The Mettau is ſtill between them, and his Pruſſian Majeſty has Part of his Right on the Weſt Side the Elbe: It is ſaid Prince Charles has extended his to Kralowalhota, nearer Neuſtadt, and that his Pruſſian Majeſty has ordered Lieutenant General Naſſau to join him with his Corps. It is thought he muſt undertake ſomething, or retreat for Want of Subſiſtance. There has lately been a ſmall Skirmiſh in which a Pruſſian Major was made Priſoner.

Berlin, Auguſt 31, N. S. It is pretended here, that the Pruſſian Troops are not to commit any Hoſtilities in Saxony till To-morrow, which Day is ſaid to be fixed for the Reſolution, upon certain Propoſitions that have been made to the Court of Dreſden; and it is very certain, that the Pruſſian Troops have hitherto obſerved exact Diſcipline in Saxony. At preſent they are providing more ſeriouſly than ever for the Defence of this Capital. All the Burghers, without Exception, are exerciſed, and mount Guard with the regular Troops. The Battalion of Militia do Duty in the Night upon the Wall, which ſurrounds the Suburbs, and a Battalion of the Regiment of Bredow is lodged in the old Stable of the Genſdarmerie.

Hague, Sept. 7, N. S. This Day their High Mightineſſes, upon His Britannick Majeſty's Miniſter's Application to them for the actual March and Embarkation of the Six Thouſand Men of Dutch Troops deſigned for Scotland, immediately granted his Demand, and diſpatched Orders to the reſpective Regiments compoſing the ſaid Body, to repair with all poſſible Speed to Willemſtad, where Tranſports are ready to receive them. They are to be commanded by Count Maurice of Naſſau; and to embark by ſingle Regiments as faſt as they arrive there, without waiting the one for the other. Yeſterday about Noon Lord Harrington proceeded to Helvoetſluys, there to wait the King's Arrival; which will be this Evening, his Majeſty having paſt Maeſlandſluys about One of the Clock. Mr. Trevor ſet out thither this Afternoon, as did the Foreign Miniſters who follow His Majeſty to England, Yeſterday and this Morning. M. Palavicini, the Genoeſe Miniſter, is arrived here.

Whitehall, Auguſt 31.

This Morning about Four of the Clock His Majeſty landed at Margate, and having paſſed through the City at One, amidſt the repeated Acclamations of his People, arrived at at Kenſington about Two this Afternoon, in perfect Health, God be praiſed.
